

Oh, How We Love to Stand

Happily ♩. = 80–92 (Conduct two beats to a measure.)

1. Oh, how we love* to stand_____ And turn our - selves* a - round,
2. Oh, how we love* to stand_____ To smile and not to frown,

Shake† the left and shake the right, But, best of all, sit down.
Lift† the left and lift the right, But, best of all, sit down.

*You may substitute a child's name (Jenny Lou loves, for example) and herself or himself.

†Actions: shake (arm)

lift (knee)

Alternate words and actions:

wave (hand) bend (waist)

point (toe) bow (head)

Words and music: Olga Carlson Brown, 1894–1987. © 1962 IRI